

1 as provided by Subsection 4 of this Section 52. That is
2 the thing I spoke about, where the Governor supplements
3 for oversight or omissions.

4 In the event the budget bill becomes a law by
5 reason of a failure to act thereon by the General Assem-
6 bly, any amendments or supplements thereto shall be con-
7 trolled and governed by Subsection 8 hereof relating to 8 supplementary appropriation bills.

9 That transfers them to another procedural arena.
10 We will discuss that in a few minutes.

11 The budget bill, upon becoming a law, shall 12 not be subject to veto by the Governor. That is in the 13 current Constitution. The budget bill is not subject
14 to veto, for obvious reasons.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions?

16 Mr. Sayre?

17 MR. SAYRE: Suppose the Legislature decided
18 that it couldn't handle all of its problems prior to the 19 ten-day limitation, so on the eleventh day decided to 20 extend by another 30 days after termination. Where does
21 the ten-day rule apply?
